COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

"OWL is a good fit for Columbia because it gives us a lot of flexibility in designing our oral proficiency assessments. With OWL, we can design the individual test tasks ourselves, insert our own rubric, record speaking samples, and perform ratings remotely."

– Maria McCormack, Lecturer in Language, American Language Program

COLLEGE OF STATEN ISLAND/CUNY

"One of my top priorities is to find ways to gain efficiencies and free valuable lab resources. ...By selecting (OWL) a versatile online assessment software that is hosted remotely, efficiencies are amplified. OWL's ability to generate reports makes it easy to record and analyze the results of our programs."

– Valeria Belmonti, Modern Languages Media Center Director

NATIONAL BOARD OF CERTIFICATION FOR MEDICAL INTERPRETERS (NBCMI)

"In rolling out our test, we wanted to make sure that its delivery was consistent and was not subject to any variation. In OWL, we found the perfect solution. A solution that offers all candidates the opportunity to take the same test – no matter where or when it is taken."

– Martin J. Conroy, Senior Manager Public Sector Language Line Services, NY

NYU-SCPS

"...We were searching for one online solution that was not only affordable but also flexible enough to meet the distinctive needs and challenges of language teaching for our two different programs. We found OWL to be an exceptional way to address their specific needs."

– Patrick Miller, Chief Information and Technology Officer

INFORMATION & COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY COUNCIL (ICTC)

"In researching potential software products, we found OWL to offer exceptional flexibility and functionality with respect to creating customized questions and tests, and supporting multiple language requirements."

– Paul D. Swinwood, President

UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE KNOXVILLE

"We were very impressed with the success of our pilot testing and how easily we were able to upload the test content to OWL. The rating and reporting features in OWL are valuable tools to more efficiently evaluate speaking proficiency."

– Dr. Beth Bradley, Coordinator, Spoken English Testing Program

MOON AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT

"We chose OWL Testing Software to help us meet our long-term goal of assessing the proficiency of 200-300 students in three languages. The software makes it easy to develop, deliver and score the assessments."

– Conchita Euston, World Language Coordinator
